Introduction

The Composite Chart

One and one make more than two, and when two people get together a third party emerges: the couple. As a couple, a team, a dynamic duo, you both become part of something larger that can give you greater power and potential than either has alone. As the two of you become one, a totally new horoscope emerges, called the composite chart, which describes what you have become by linking up, what your special, mutual universe looks like from inside and out. It may be very different than either of you alone, or it may just reinforce you both, but it is what you are together, so embrace it. When you move to a new location, you modify that chart, and your image together and what you can do with it may change significantly. As with your individual charts, you have an inside that doesn't change with a move and an outside that changes with locality. To see if you have the best possible fit in this new place, here's a look at both.

A composite chart shows the midpoints between two charts' planet positions. Horizons uses a new method to allow the relocation of a composite chart. The composite planet positions are placed into the chart of the first person in the composite pair.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Cancer

Your new image here is upfront, close, and personal -- which can seem reassuring and caring to some and quite invasive and threatening to others. You'll seem more attuned to the feelings of others, but once you're in the door, be prepared to take responsibility for the space you have invaded. On the opposite side, you yourselves may be a bit more touchy than you think you are.

Midheaven in Aries

You can get tagged as too easily picking a fight here, which comes from taking things too personally and moving too swiftly to protect your interests. On the other hand, if you're looking to get tangled up and personal, this is just the place to be. Whatever is said about you, it is often without second thought, and changes just as easily.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Composite Uranus On IC (Strong)

Don't be surprised if you find yourselves living in circumstances that are novel and perhaps unconventional here. The two of you inspire it and will probably enjoy the opportunity to try a new lifestyle. Don't get too rooted down to one abode, however, as you may have to pull up stakes and move for unexpected, though not necessarily unwelcome, reasons.

Uranus in Fourth House

Settling in here may prove inconclusive, as you may have to move for unexpected reasons, or you may just want to, without any. Where you live will be one set of discoveries after another, and although that doesn't always make for comfort, it's also an adventure and an education all rolled up into one. Key lesson: If you think you can count on something, don't.

Composite Moon Sxt IC (Medium)

Genuine but limited displays of public affection here will nicely boost your image together without having to actually put your hearts on display. You'll feel comfortable sharing how you feel, partially because it comes more easily and partially because it's not in conflict with others' opinions, so you fit in.

Moon in First House

Your joint emotional level is kicked up a notch here, and you'll lead with your feelings more than you might elsewhere. That makes this a good place for reaching out and touching people, whether you're trying to touch their hearts or tap their wallets. By being totally upfront, you make contact quickly and directly.

Composite Sun On IC (Medium)

If you could stay at home tending to your own important, inner business here, you would -- which may impact on your reasons to come here. Together you're more likely to sit on your winnings than go out and explore, so if you can function here out of the confines of your own castle, it will be perfect. Venturing out may be an effort.

Sun in Third House

You'll likely dive right into the swim of things here, and certainly you won't be shy about being in touch with everyone around you. Close personal touch, maybe not, but lots of social contact, a whirl of messages, plenty of networking and information exchange, of which you may find yourselves the self-appointed center.

Composite Venus On IC (Mild)

Just sitting around enjoying each other's company on a quiet evening may be one of this place's greatest charms for you. You don't need to go out on the town to have a feast, and you'll have a much better time entertaining at home and bringing the party to you -- if you even need the company at all.

Venus in Third House

Diplomacy will get you everything in this environment, and your joint approach to communication and even flattery can make you a desirable duo, indeed. You only need to be aware that promises and results are not the same thing, and the most pleasant of conversations may have to be a payoff in itself unless you let it be known otherwise.
