Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Local Space Astrology by Michael Erlewine

If you were to walk outside your home at the moment of birth and look around you, the Sun, Moon, and planets would each be somewhere in the sky above and around you. For example, the Moon might be rising low to the Southwest, and so forth. If you were to draw a line from your birth spot in the compass direction of the Moon, it would extend across (and around) the Earth, passing through any number of cities. The circular line of those cities and places mark a path across the earth toward the direction of the Moon.

If you did this for the Sun and all the planets, you would be examining a map of the space surrounding your locale. That map would be a standard geographical map with the direction of each planet laid out on it as lines. This is why I originally called this technique Local Space Astrology.

At any given moment, the Sun, Moon, and all the planets are above a certain spot on earth and in a particular direction from your birthplace. In fact, not only planets and stars, but also cities, countries, and even the local water tower or the neighbor's house has a place and direction on this map. It does not matter how far away an object is, we only want to know in what direction it is. You can walk toward, write letters to, or get up and relocate into, for instance, the direction of Venus or Mars, and we each do this all the time.

Local Space maps are useful when it comes to relocation and/or when we want to pick a city (and direction) of a planet we would like to experience more of, like perhaps Venus (love, beauty, value) or Jupiter (might help us find our life path or career), and so forth. There are also planets we might like to experience less of, as well, so we might avoid those spots. But these lines are also great for picking spots for vacation and business trips, as well as checking out where friends and not-so-friends live. It could be someone all the way in China or as close as a neighbor's house.

Understanding Local Space allows you to fine tune your life by picking the places you live or want to visit in terms of what they can add or take away from your overall life experience. For example, if you are struggling to find the right career, you might want to take a trip or have a vacation in the direction of the planet Jupiter (the planet of vocation) and see what develops. Or, as I myself did, you may want to permanently relocate to a Jupiter spot until you can find your way to making a living. Or, if you find yourself living in a city along your Saturn line and you feel too hemmed in and inhibited, you might want to just move to a city in line with a planet that is more encouraging. You get the idea.

Check out your Local Space Chart and look at each line to see in what direction it is and what cities or places it passes through. Read about and consider what each planet offers you in the way of qualities and changes. Don't forget about the places where your friends and not-so-friends live, whether they are far away cities or just across town. Give it some thought. Local Space can be very useful in fine-tuning your life experience through astrology.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Sagittarius

Open covenants, openly arrived at should be your stock in trade here -- at least, that's what will go over the best and make you welcomed into any situation. Be forthright and honest, or at least play that part, and you'll fit right in. Just be aware that some may try to slip one past you, so smack them if they try it.

Midheaven in Libra

You can expect to be judged fairly here, especially if you are willing to take the local situation seriously and show it. A little extra gravitas goes a long way, even in lightweight affairs. You can exercise a steadier hand here than you might expect, all you have to do is take on the part and be believable.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Moon/Sun On IC (Strong)

This may feel like a very important place to you, a place that says roots for you even if you have no history of it. You'll have your feet on the ground in a special way, and as a result will work from a more balanced position. You'll treat people like family because, somehow, they are -- and they'll do the same.

Natal Mercury Sxt IC (Strong)

Anything you say can and will be used for you around here, and what you say immediately goes up the masthead like a flag. Not everyone may salute, but there will be no mistaking it for another's banner. Career situations have the benefit of pre-established understanding, allowing you to get down to brass tacks more quickly.

Mercury in Second House

Your head is going to be on material matters here, so figuring out the landscape and how to make it pay will be an important part of how and what you have to say. Concrete plans bring productive results and you don't have to think outside the box to fill it up. If you're in it for the money, this could be the place to be.

Natal Uranus Sqr MC (Strong)

Who knows what they think about you around here? Chances are, you don't -- and you may be surprised when you find out. For sure, you will have to do some fine-tuning of your reputation to separate truth from fancy -- and in the process you may become rather more inventive in reinventing others' inventions about you.

Uranus in Seventh House

You can go here to find all the oddballs you never ran across before -- they all live here, or so it may seem. But you'll also want to get to know them in a way you may seldom have done before. You'll be seeking, and finding, originality in a partner over consistency, intensity over reliability, and above all, adventure.

Natal Jupiter Tri MC (Medium)

It's easy for people here to think of you as the latest and greatest, as that will be what they naturally hear first. Your job is not to get in the way of that rumor and do all you can to confirm it. Make the most of free good press and then add a little bit to keep the ball rolling and you're set.

Jupiter in Sixth House

There may not be enough hours in the day for you to fit in all you need here, as you're likely to be adding first one thing and then another to your schedule. If you want to get it all done, be ready to get help by sharing your productivity, making your ideas a win-win for everybody involved. It may take a village to do what you'll be proposing....

Natal Neptune Local Space Line (Medium)

The Neptune line is all about inspiration, whatever it is that inspires us, and the pure flight of the imagination. Neptune places are ones where we can let go of differences, and where the sense of unity is greater than that which divides us.

A trip to a Neptune place can be filled with inspiration, whether of a spiritual nature or simply taking in some incredible music, theater, film, or poetry. These are places where you can just let your hair down and join in with those around you -- a deep sense of belonging and unity.

Neptune in Tenth House

You may spend some time and effort straightening out what people say about you, as what you do is a bit of a mystery by nature in this clime. That's not your fault, and you can use it to your advantage. Just be aware that the buzz, for better or worse, is inaccurate (though perhaps flattering) and thus subject to change.

Natal Saturn Local Space Line (Mild)

Saturn is generally considered a pretty heavy planet, and probably not at the top of the list of places to visit by most. And this is as it should be, since Saturn brings rules, regulations, and restrictions, and these can easily appear as inhibitions, barriers, and delays. And this is probably the way Saturn does affect most of us. But there are cases where we need barriers, where rules and restrictions protect us. Saturn also represents the walls that make homes possible.

If you already, by nature, tend to be gloomy, somber, or too serious, then this is probably not a place you will enjoy. However, if you lack discipline and do well with directions or following rules, then this could be a source of strength and organization.

Saturn in Tenth House

You're better off staking your claims as an authority on what's gone before than as a herald of the new here. It's more profitable to be seen as reliably accomplished than dismissed as insufficiently novel. You can get away with (even enjoy) being a bit stuffy, but shallow and trendy will not sell for you here.

Paran Latitude LinesSun-Neptune Latitude Line at 41N21'19"

You can be all you want to be here, or at least that's the way you'll feel and the energy you'll put out. Your inner dreams radiate and inspire those around you, but it is doubtful that you can fill every fantasy or live every possibility. There are too many options that flow forth from within, and the challenge here is to get specific enough with the chosen few that they come all the way to fruition without falling by the wayside as newer things beckon. Sympathy runs strong here, but it takes more than a feeling to make good feelings come true. Follow your inner nature, but follow-through.

Saturn-Pluto Latitude Line at 42N15'17"

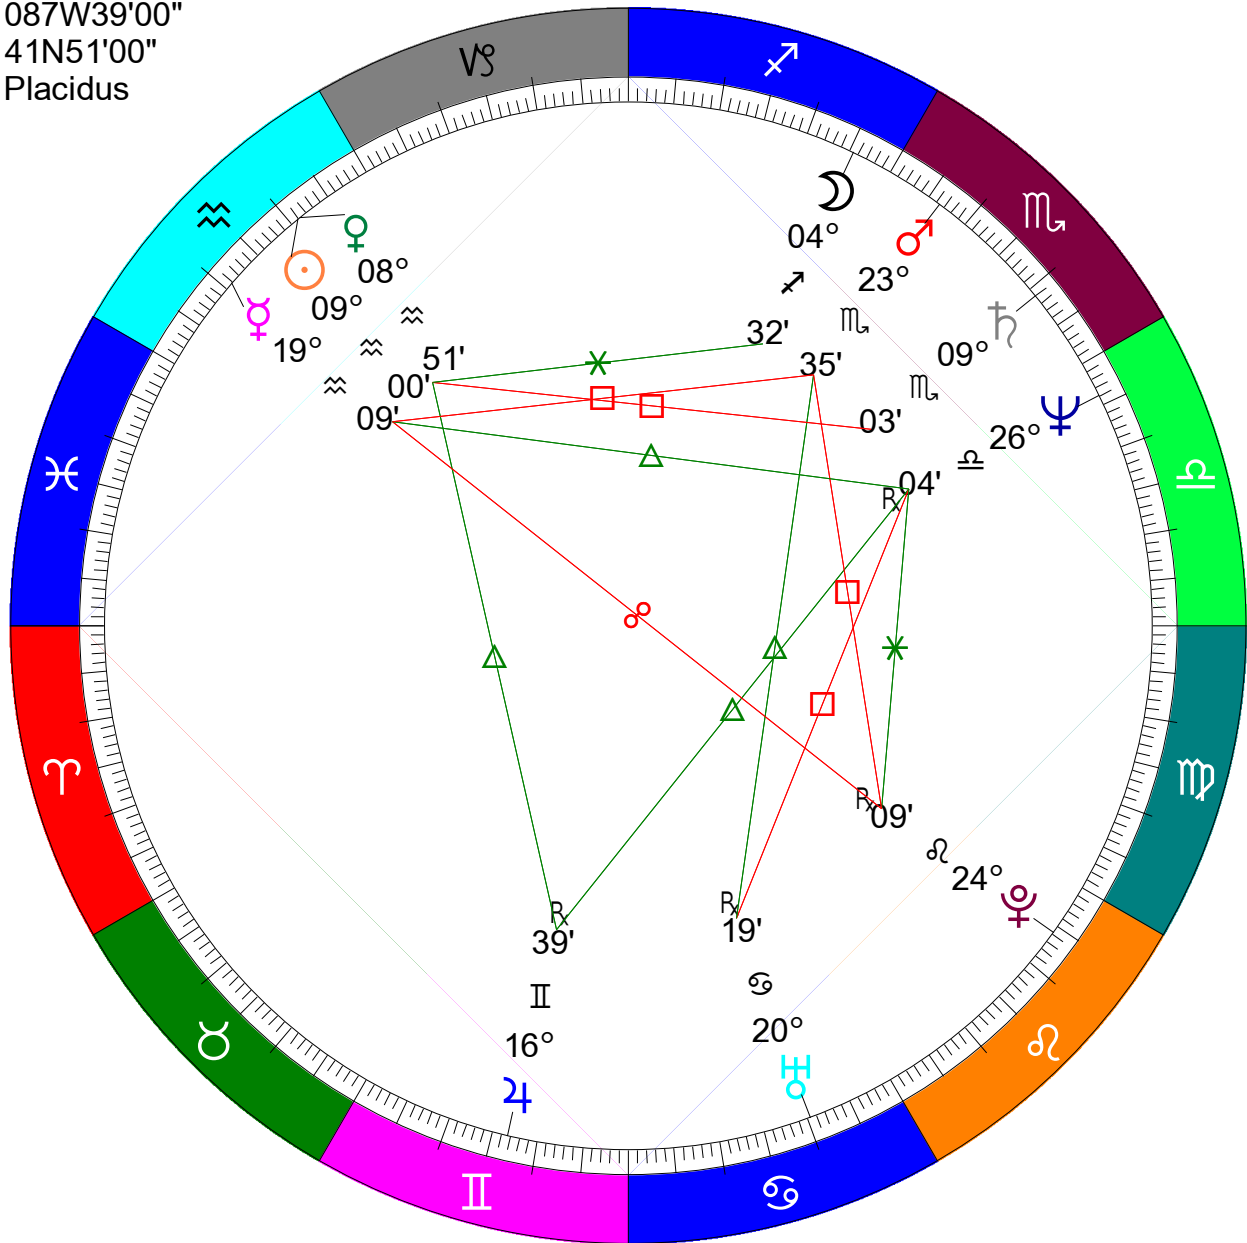

When you've been to Hell and back, you've become a person changed for the better -- it's just that the experience is a little depressing when you're in the middle of it. Here you may more greatly notice your down side and confront feelings of abandonment and hopelessness that are the very antithesis of the light. It's in everyone, some more than others, and you'll find it at your beck and call here if you choose to, perhaps even if you don't. If you've resolved most of those issues, you won't really notice it all that much. If not, this may not be the place to go to party down and forget your troubles.

C*C*G Planets on Angles

Transits to Angles

Location charts respond to transits very much like your natal chart. Although Jupiter, for instance, may not be transiting your natal Ascendant right now, it is transiting your relocated Ascendant somewhere, and that somewhere is likely where you'll easily get a lot of extra attention and enhanced personal prospects if you go there or start doing business with people there. The same goes for the rest of the planets, so you can travel to seek or to escape their transits at the place of your choice.

Progressions to Angles

Although you can't escape your natal progressions, you can go experience them someplace else, particularly where a favorable progressed planet relocates right on an angle and thus gets extra emphasis. As with transits, your progressed relocation paths will tell you where it's happening according to the nature of each planet. Being that they are progressions rather than transits, the effect will be more internal than external, but noticeable all the same.

Transit Jupiter Tri IC (Strong)

Goings-on behind the scenes here work well in your favor and support your accomplishments in ways you may not suspect this year. You will find that you can get a lot done on the ground based on your reputation alone if you associate yourself with the latest local developments. If it's happening, let yourself in on it.

Progressed Mercury Ssq IC (Strong)

If you can't put your accomplishments into words for people here to understand, who can? That's your challenge this year, as you find the ability to describe what it is you do so well challenged by your own growth and change in direction. It's all about integrating what you're doing with what you've done -- and then expressing it clearly.

Transit Saturn Sxt MC (Strong)

There's a year or so of support from the more conservative parts of this environment coming your way, so if you want to maintain your reputation, don't rock the boat too much, or don't seem to be. You are cementing your base, so to speak, so smilingly accept praise from unlikely quarters, because you'll use it later.

Transit Neptune Sxt IC (Strong)

Your particular set of accomplishments are seen here for some considerable time as being rather ideal and fitting right in to the local drama. That may not actually be the case, but why fight a good thing if playing along can benefit you and educate you at the same time? Embrace the dream and see how you like it.

Progressed Mars Tri IC (Medium)

This marks several years of confident pulling behind your goals and accomplishments, stroking evenly with your oars to race ahead of the pack. You can make great progress here because you're in tune with what you've done and what you yet want to do, and one naturally boosts the other.

Transit Uranus Ssx IC (Medium)

Your reputation as an innovator here is strong for a couple of years, so go ahead and make some moves, even if you haven't done so before. It will only fill out expectations and set you a step ahead on your career track. Look for support in unlikely places and when it comes, don't turn it down -- explore and invest it.

Progressed Venus On IC (Medium)

You may feel like just eating up this place, as right now it can offer you a special kind of nourishment that adult palates have forgotten. There's an air of homey satisfaction that will gratify endlessly if you can just put your finger on it. Don't try to grab and hold, however, because it is literally in the air.
